

The Connecticut Chapter of the Association of Contingency Planners proudly presents a full-day world-class symposium on

Tools for Managing Risks: Delivering Value in Business Continuity

September 14, 2010, 8am-5pm
Northeast Utilities, Berlin, CT

ACP members $50 - Non-members $100

Gov't. employees $75

(ACP Membership is only $75 annually)

Registration includes breakfast and lunch

Check the website for directions and updated programming

http://ct.acp-international.com/ACP-CT_About_New.html

Also watch for announcements about vendors/exhibitors

Who should attend? Anyone involved with people aspects of maintaining business processes: business continuity and disaster recovery planners, HR personnel/managers, security personnel, procurement specialists, organization leaders, etc. There is content and learning for all types of organizations, large and small!

Connecticut Chapter,
Association of Contingency Planners
14 September 2010

Program

- 8:00 - 8:30 Check-in /Breakfast
- 8:30 - 8:45 Intro/ Remarks/ Logistics for the Day
- 8:45 - 9:45 Stan Black, Chief Security Officer, Nuance Communications
"When Understanding and Assessing Risk Fall Short: How Governance, Risk and Compliance (GRC) meet Current Challenges"
- 9:45 - 10:00 Break/Vendors
- 10:00 - 11:00 George Dunn, President, George P. Dunn & Associates, LLC
"Emergency Response: KleenEnergy Site"
- 11:00 - 12:00 Michael Shandowski, Practice Manager - SunGard - CoE
"Conducting a Risk Assessment"
- 12:00 - 1:00 Lunch/Vendors/Facilitated Table Topics
- 1:00 - 2:00 Harvey Betan, Associate Principal, RiskMasters Inc
"Vendor Risk Management from both sides-Vendor & Customer"
- 2:00 - 2:15 Break / Vendors
- 2:15 - 3:15 Andrew MacPherson, Director, Technical Analysis Group, University of New Hampshire Justiceworks
"Cyber Threats 2011 and Beyond"
- 3:15 - 4:15 Roberta Witty, Research Vice President, Gartner Compliance, Risk and Leadership
"Business Continuity Management Key Performance Indicator/Key Performance Indicator Mapping"
- 4:15 Wrap up

